

HISTORY HACK • DOCUMENT-BASED QUESTION

Analyze the following three primary source excerpts and write a document-based essay that argues whether the policy of appeasement and American isolationism made World War II inevitable.

US.47 — Explain the rise and spread of fascism, communism, and totalitarianism internationally, including the following leaders: • Adolf Hitler • Benito Mussolini • Joseph Stalin • Hideki Tojo

US.48 — Explain the progression of key events and President Franklin D. Roosevelt’s response to world crises that lead to U.S. entry into World War II, including the Quarantine Speech, the Four Freedoms Speech, the Atlantic Charter, the Lend-Lease Act, and Pearl Harbor.

The sources

Document A

Excerpt from the Atlantic Charter, signed by FDR and Winston Churchill, August 14, 1941 (National Archives, public domain)

“First, their countries seek no aggrandizement, territorial or other; Second, they desire to see no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned; Third, they respect the right of all peoples to choose the form of government under which they will live...”

Document C

Excerpt from FDR's 'Arsenal of Democracy' Fireside Chat, December 29, 1940 (Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library; public domain government record)

“The Nazi masters of Germany have made it clear that they intend not only to dominate all life and thought in their own country, but also to enslave the whole of Europe, and then to use the resources of Europe to dominate the rest of the world... If Great Britain goes down, the Axis powers will control the continents of Europe, Asia, Africa... and they will be in a position to bring enormous military and naval resources against this hemisphere.”

The question

Using HIPP (Historical context, Intended audience, Purpose, Point of view) analysis for each document and your knowledge of U.S. foreign policy from 1935 to 1941, construct an argument that evaluates the relationship between American isolationism, the failure of international response to fascist aggression, and the conditions that made a global war both predictable and avoidable. Address how FDR's evolving rhetoric in Documents A and C contrasts with the formal neutrality of Document B.
