

HISTORY HACK · DOCUMENT-BASED QUESTION

Analyze the following two primary source excerpts and construct a document-based argument about the contradictions African Americans faced during World War II and how those contradictions shaped postwar civil rights activism.

US.51 — Identify the roles and sacrifices of individual American soldiers, as well as the unique contributions of special fighting forces such as the Tuskegee Airmen, the 442nd Regimental Combat team, and the Navajo Code Talkers.

US.52 — Examine the impact of World War II on economic and social conditions for African Americans, including the Fair Employment Practices Committee and the eventual integration of the armed forces by President Harry S. Truman. (T.C.A. § 49-6-1006)

The sources

Document A

Excerpt from the Executive Order 8802, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, June 25, 1941 (Federal Register, Vol. 6, No. 125, June 25, 1941; National Archives, archives.gov)

“We call upon the President and Congress to declare racial democracy here at home as our war aim, even as we fight for democracy abroad... We have a stake in this fight — we are Americans. But we must have a victory at home as well as abroad. The first V is for victory over our enemies from without; the second V is for victory over our enemies from within.”

Document B

Excerpt from Executive Order 9981, issued by President Harry S. Truman, July 26, 1948 (Federal Register, 1948; National Archives, public domain)

“There shall be equality of treatment and opportunity for all persons in the armed services without regard to race, color, religion, or national origin. This policy shall be put into effect as rapidly as possible, having due regard to the time required to effectuate any necessary changes without impairing efficiency or morale.””

The question

Using HIPP analysis for each document and your knowledge of African Americans' experiences during and after World War II, construct an argument that traces the relationship between Executive Order 8802 and the Fair Employment Practices Committee's wartime demands (Document A) and Truman's desegregation order (Document B). Your argument must evaluate: whether EO 9981 represented a fulfillment of the Double V's goals, the limitations of the order, and how WWII service shaped the civil rights generation of the 1950s and 1960s. Include at least two pieces of outside evidence.

Scoring guide

Pts	6-point scale
6	Exemplary. Sophisticated thesis about partial fulfillment and generational connection. Both documents analyzed with full HIPP including Cold War political context for EO 9981. Two or more outside evidence pieces. Explicit synthesis of Doc A → Doc B as six-year arc of change. Connection to 1950s–1960s civil rights movement demonstrated.
5	Advanced. Clear thesis. Both documents with mostly complete HIPP. Cold War context for EO 9981 present. Two outside evidence pieces.
4	Proficient. Clear thesis. Both documents with three+ HIPP elements. One outside piece. Some cross-era connection.
3	Adequate. Thesis present. One document fully analyzed. Outside evidence present. Partial cross-era connection.
2	Developing. Minimal thesis. Documents described without HIPP. Little outside evidence or cross-era analysis.
1	Beginning. No thesis. One document without analysis.
0	No response or completely off-topic.

Expected evidence and document analysis. DOCUMENT ANALYSIS EXPECTATIONS: Doc A — Executive Order 8802 / Fair Employment Practices Committee records (National Archives) as political advocacy; 'enemies from within' framing of Jim Crow as equivalent enemy to Axis powers. Doc B — Truman's Cold War motivation should be noted (U.S. could not credibly oppose Soviet oppression while maintaining racial segregation in its military). KEY EVIDENCE EXPECTED: Tuskegee Airmen; 761st Tank Battalion; A. Philip Randolph / EO 8802 (1941); NAACP growth (50K→500K, 1940–1946); EO 9981 (1948) desegregating military; Korean War; Brown v. Board (1954); Montgomery Bus Boycott (1955).
