Berlin and NATO — The Crystallization of the Cold War Alliance System

US.60 — Analyze the Cold War policies of containment and the Truman Doctrine, Marshall Plan, and Berlin Airlift.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Directions. Read the following three primary source excerpts and respond to the prompt below. Apply HIPP analysis to at least two documents and construct an argument.

The sources

Document A

President Harry S. Truman, Statement on the Berlin Airlift, July 19, 1948 — U.S. government document, available through the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library (National Archives)

“We are in Berlin as a result of our agreements with our Allies after the defeat of Germany... These agreements also gave us certain rights of access to Berlin. I want the record to be absolutely clear that abandonment of our position in Berlin would mean the loss of more than a city. It would be a blow to the entire structure of resistance to Soviet expansionism.”

P — Point of view

Who is speaking, and how does that shape it?

Document B

North Atlantic Treaty, Preamble and Article 5, April 4, 1949 — multilateral treaty, available through the Avalon Project, Yale Law School

“The Parties... are determined to safeguard the freedom, common heritage and civilisation of their peoples, founded on the principles of democracy, individual liberty and the rule of law... The Parties agree that an armed attack against one or more of them in Europe or North America shall be considered an attack against them all.”

Document C

President John F. Kennedy, "Ich bin ein Berliner" speech, West Berlin, June 26, 1963 — U.S. government document, available through the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library (National Archives)

“There are many people in the world who really don't understand, or say they don't, what is the great issue between the free world and the Communist world. Let them come to Berlin. Freedom is indivisible, and when one man is enslaved, all are free. The wall is the most obvious and vivid demonstration of the failures of the Communist system.”

The question

Using all three documents and your knowledge of the Berlin crises and NATO formation (US.62, US.59), construct an argument that evaluates Berlin's symbolic and strategic significance in the Cold War. Apply HIPP analysis to at least two documents and

1. why Berlin was the central flashpoint of the early Cold War
2. how the Berlin crises shaped NATO's development and the Western alliance's resolve; and
3. what the Berlin Wall reveals about the relative effectiveness of communist and capitalist systems as perceived by their own populations
